

presents
2010 ACTE REGION V CONFERENCE

Tentative Schedule

Revised December 3, 2009

Location: Anchorage Downtown Hilton
508 West Third Avenue

Registration: $325 for members
Includes three breakfasts, one lunch, and one dinner

Wednesday, April 28

➔ Come early to

- Attend the State of Alaska Apprenticeship Conference or
- Take a tour of the UMED District (University of Alaska Anchorage and Anchorage medical campus) or
- Take a tour of the King Career Center in Anchorage and the Mat-Su Career & Technical High School in Wasilla or
- Participate in a training session on Distance Delivery or
- Take a recreational tour to see Southcentral Alaska.

Note: Some of the above have additional costs or limited space.

➔ Region V Policy Committee meets from 3-5 p.m.

Alaska Airlines offers a 10% discount for travel. The code is ECCMB1176.
<http://www.alaskaair.com> or 1-800-252-7522 for reservations.

Thursday, April 29—Breakfast at 7:30 a.m.

Opening Session featuring Sharon Bowman, a national communications trainer and motivator

Four professional development sessions

Teacher of the Year interviews

State of the States

Alaska ACTE Awards Luncheon and business meeting (at extra cost)

Region V Committee Meetings

Social Event with dinner at the Sourdough Mining Company and show at Wild Berry Theatre, Jack Dalton, Native storyteller and entertainer invited (at extra cost, minimum of 40 people)

Friday, April 30—Breakfast at 7:30 a.m.

General Session with Fran Ulmer invited, former Lt. Governor of Alaska and current Chancellor at UAA

Four professional development sessions

Region V Award Luncheon

Delegate Assembly

Dinner and Auction

Saturday, May 1—Breakfast at 7:30 a.m.

Closing Session — ends at 10:30 a.m.

Distance Learning Training or

Additional recreational tours

PLAN TO BRING YOUR OLD CELL PHONES

We are going to continue a service project started by the Alaskan CTSOs. Those students are gathering unused cell phones to be given to ACS (Alaska Communications Systems) for distribution as safety phones.

Updated information and registration are available at www.actealaska.org